“HOW COMPLICATED CAN IT BE?” AMANDA ASKS. PRETTY COMPLICATED, AS IT TURNS OUT!

For Love or Money By Michael Messmer

Directed by Michael Messmer

Arden Playhouse is pleased to present For Love or Money a new play by Michael Messmer. For Love or Money is a fast-paced, classic farce, complete with lots of confusion, deception, and plans that go wildly haywire.

We all know how one little deception can create lots of complications. But what happens when you have a room full of people engaged in little deceptions? Amanda is rich but pretends not to be when Paul, a man she almost married many years before, shows up pretending to be Paolo, an arrogant artist who hates rich people. And Jerome, a hypnotherapist who has planted some ideas, pretends not to know what could have gone wrong. Soon, everyone is trying to figure out what is going on. Whether it's For Love or Money, it makes for a wild romp with lots of laughs.

Michael Messmer is one of Sacramento's most prolific comedy playwrights. He has written over thirty comedies, many of which have been performed at Arden Playhouse. He is a master of intelligent, peppy dialogue and action that keeps audiences entertained.

For Love or Money boasts a great ensemble cast, including Kris Hunt, Eddie Madrigal, Tiffany McKinney, Mark Stone and Susan Wheat.
